

Virtual 5th Annual

World
Ocean
Day

Celebration with Ko Olina
Sunday, June 13, 2021 | 4 - 6pm

I ola nō nā hanauna i ka welo

The generations thrive because of their common heritage

An Edith Kanaka'ole Foundation team member watches sunrise on Mokumanamana. Image: Brad Ka'aleleo Wong/OHA

Sunday, June 13th, 4 - 6pm

Watch live at www.facebook.com/OiwiTV

For the fifth year in a row, Ko Olina Resort in partnership with NOAA and other community partners will host a World Ocean Day Celebration. The event will be held virtually on Sunday, June 13th starting at 4pm. World Ocean Day is a global day of ocean celebration and collaboration for a better future.

Program Highlights

- Hosted by McKenna Maduli with special guest Kimi Werner
- Local artists and musicians such as Kapena, Josh Tatofi, Ron Artis II, and Drew Henmi
- NOAA and UH scientists talking ocean science from old school biology to new future tech
- Video postcards from youth all around the Pacific
- Tribute to the 15th anniversary of Papahānaumokuākea
- Messages from our ocean stewardship partners around the islands

Pay attention and enter our "Kahoot Game" and you could be the winner of a one night stay at Aulani, A Disney Resort and Spa!

The theme for this year is "Generations," reflecting on the sharing of knowledge and experience across time and generations. The 'ōlelo no'eau (Hawaiian proverb) is "I ola nō nā hanauna i ka welo" - the generations thrive because of their common heritage.

Please join us for this 2-hour special event. Event can be accessed on the day of the event at: www.facebook.com/OiwiTV.

This World Ocean Day Celebration is generously supported by Ko Olina Resort Operators Association, Inc., the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), Aulani, A Disney Resort and Spa, and Conservation International Hawai'i.

